Employer Risk Alert: Workplace Relationships – Rachel Demarest Gold in amNY Law

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Rachel Demarest Gold
Partner

This article was published in the July 30, 2025 edition of amNY Law.

Abrams Fensterman Partner and Director of the firm's Employment & Labor Law Practice Group, Rachel Demarest Gold, was featured in amNY Law*'s Employer Risk Alert with her latest article, "Workplace Relationships [The Coldplay Kisscam Affair]."

Rachel examines the legal and practical risks surrounding workplace relationships, especially those involving power imbalances between supervisors and subordinates. She outlines how ignorance of harassment laws can expose employers to significant liability under both state and federal standards and provides clear guidance for implementing compliant policies and training programs.

Rachel's article underscores the importance of proactive employer education, transparency, and consistent enforcement to prevent claims of harassment, favoritism, and retaliation in the workplace. Read the full article below: "Workplace Relationships [The Coldplay Kisscam Affair]"

Related video: Watch Rachel's video further examining the risks surrounding workplace relationships in light of the Coldplay concert incident, and what it means for employers. Watch here.

COLUMN

RACHEL DEMAREST

Employ

Not to glom on,
about workpla
the issues they guidelines for them. Ignorance of laws can end up bei

The Legal Standard

By definition, sex
unwanted verbal or
of a sexual nature; a gender discriminati
system, the behavio
and pervasive" to be slights and trivial in excused. In New Yor
standard is much lo