Jordan Fensterman serves as Director of the firm's OPMC & OPD Defense Practices, representing healthcare providers, facilities, and businesses in regulatory, transactional, and professional discipline matters. A recognized leader in professional license defense matters, he counsels physicians, nurses, dentists, pharmacists, and other licensed professionals facing investigations and hearings before the New York State Department of Health and the New York State Education Department.

In addition, Mr. Fensterman advises on complex employment agreements, healthcare compliance matters, business disputes, and corporate transactions involving healthcare entities. He has been consistently recognized by Super Lawyers and maintains an AV Preeminent® rating from Martindale-Hubbell.

Jill Spielberg is Director of the Matrimonial & Family Law practice in the firm's White Plains office and one of the region's most sought-after advocates for high-net-worth individuals navigating complex divorces, custody disputes, and high-conflict family matters. Known for balancing courtroom force with empathetic, strategic counsel, Ms. Spielberg has built a reputation as a trusted advisor to executives, entrepreneurs, and public figures facing high-stakes family transitions.

She has particular expertise in custody matters involving neurodivergent children, bringing a deep understanding of mental health, education, and long-term co-parenting needs. Ms. Spielberg is a frequent lecturer and media commentator on cutting-edge family law issues, a longtime community leader in Westchester, and a multi-year Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers® honoree.

Ayman Soliman is an integral member of the firm's award-winning Healthcare Law Practice group. He is Director of the firm's Physician Practices, focusing on healthcare transactions, regulatory compliance, and government investigations, representing medical professionals, group practices, ambulatory surgery centers, diagnostic and treatment centers, urgent care centers, hospitals and a wide range of healthcare organizations and providers.

Mr. Soliman regularly counsels clients on mergers and acquisitions, employment agreements, management agreements, practice formation, anti-kickback laws, Stark Law compliance, False Claims Act matters, voluntary disclosures, and HIPAA Privacy and Security standards. He has successfully negotiated numerous matters with federal and state enforcement agencies and frequently lectures on risk management, compliance, and healthcare transactions and structures. He has been recognized as a Super Lawyer in Health Care Law.
