

Abrams Fensterman Hosts Brooklyn Women's BA in Celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month

Abrams Fensterman was honored to host the Brooklyn Women's Bar Association (BWBA) as they celebrated Hispanic Heritage Month at the firm's Brooklyn office. The event brought together legal professionals, community leaders, and distinguished guests, including Hon. Hector D. LaSalle, Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division, Second Department, to recognize and celebrate the invaluable contributions of Hispanic Americans to the legal profession and broader society.

Credit: Brooklyn Daily Eagle

Justice LaSalle delivered an inspiring keynote address, highlighting the importance of diversity and representation within the legal community. His remarks resonated deeply with attendees, as he emphasized the progress made and the ongoing efforts needed to ensure equality and opportunities for Hispanic Americans in the legal field.

The event, organized by the BWBA, provided a platform to honor the achievements and cultural heritage of Hispanic Americans while fostering a sense of unity and collaboration within the legal profession. Attendees had the opportunity to network, share experiences, and discuss the impact of Hispanic legal professionals on shaping the justice system.

Read the full article and view event photos in the Brooklyn Eagle here.