

Howard Fensterman Ranked #20 on City & State's Law Power 100

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Howard Fensterman

Managing Partner

Abrams Fensterman is proud to announce that our Managing Partner and Co-Founder, Howard Fensterman, has been ranked #20 on City & State New York's 2025 Law Power 100—a prestigious list recognizing the most influential legal professionals shaping New York's political and governmental landscape.

Securing the #20 spot statewide, Howard stands among the top legal power players in New York, recognized for his ability to advise government leaders, drive policy, and lead high-stakes litigation. A distinguished litigator, strategist, and business leader, Howard has played a pivotal role in expanding Abrams Fensterman from a 13-attorney practice in 2000 to a powerhouse firm with over 115 attorneys across five offices today.

This latest honor reinforces his reputation as a key figure in law and public service, adding to previous recognitions on City & State's Long Island Power 100, Schneps Media's Power Players List, and Long Island Business News' Influential Leaders List.

Congratulations to Howard on this well-earned distinction!

View Howard Fensterman's City & State profile here.