

Maureen Bass Named by Rochester Business Journal as one of the 2024 Attorneys of the Year

We are thrilled to announce that Maureen Bass, Partner-in-Charge of the firm's Rochester office, has been recognized as a 2024 Attorneys of the Year Honoree by The Daily Record and the Rochester Business Journal. This prestigious award celebrates Maureen's dedication to the legal profession, her commitment to serving her clients, and her significant contributions to the Rochester community.

With over 25 years of legal experience, Maureen has excelled in a wide range of practice areas, including healthcare law, corporate governance, and regulatory matters. Maureen's recognition as an Attorney of the Year reflects her outstanding contributions to the legal profession and her continued commitment to her clients, peers, and the Rochester community.

Maureen has recently been recognized in the media for several high-profile stories involving her clients, which demonstrates her expertise in such complex legal matters including her work related to local law enforcement cases.

This year's Attorneys of the Year recipients will be celebrated on November 4 at the Hyatt Regency Rochester, as well as profiled in upcoming issues of The Daily Record and the Rochester Business Journal. More information about the Attorneys of the Year in Western New York, and event information can be found here.

ATTORNEYS
OF THE YEAR

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 2024 HONOREES

In House Counsel

Erika J. Duthiers, Rochester Institute of Technology

Greg Ewing, Trillium Health

Leaders in Law

Kenneth Africano, Harter Secrest & Emery LLP

Thomas R. Anderson, Harter Secrest & Emery LLP

Maureen T. Bass, Abrams Fensterman, LLP

Maureen Bass

