

Abrams Fensterman Sponsoring Alzheimer's & Dementia Expo

FEATURED ATTORNEY

Moriah Adamo

Partner

Abrams Fensterman, LLP is proud to serve as a sponsor of the 2025 Long Island Alzheimer's and Dementia Conference, taking place on Friday, November 7, 2025, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Hilton Long Island in Melville, NY.

The annual event brings together caregivers, healthcare professionals, and experts dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals affected by Alzheimer's disease and other forms of dementia. The firm's Elder Law and Estate Planning Department, led by Partner Moriah Adamo, will be exhibiting at the conference to connect with caregivers and provide guidance on critical legal and financial decisions surrounding long-term care, Medicaid eligibility, guardianship, and estate planning.

As part of the day's educational programming, Moriah Adamo will introduce the workshop "Caring with Confidence: Reducing the Burden of Incontinence in Dementia," presented by Alexandra Laghezza and Kimberly Johnson, from 10:45 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. in the Banfi Conference Room.

"We understand the profound challenges that caregivers face when supporting loved ones with Alzheimer's or dementia. Our mission is to help families navigate the legal and financial complexities of care with confidence, compassion, and clarity."

– Moriah Adamo, Partner and Manager of Abrams Fensterman's Lake Success Elder Law and Estate Planning/Administration Department

The conference is free for all attendees and offers opportunities to learn from industry experts, explore resources, and connect with local organizations offering caregiver support and dementia care solutions.
