A nationwide ban on all non-compete agreements for workers is scheduled to take effect on September 4th.

Who is Covered by the Non-Compete Ban? The Rule covers all “workers,” including employees and now also independent contractors, volunteers, interns, and externs.

What Does this Mean for Businesses and Employers?

Join Rachel Demarest Gold and the Long Island Business News, for a conversation about the Federal Trade Commission’s recent ban on non-compete clauses. Rachel and the panel will provide a summary of the rule and offer employers guidance on compliance steps and what businesses need to do now.

Tuesday, June 25th

11AM – 12PM
