Abrams Fensterman's Elder Law & Estate Planning Practice is pleased to invite your social work team to attend a complimentary Continuing Education program:

Patient Advocacy: Legal Aspects of Maximizing Health Care

Date: March 3, 2026

Time: 5:30 – 7:30 PM

Location: Virtual via Zoom

Credits: 2 CE Credits | Provider #SW-0847

Presented by Moriah Adamo, Esq., Partner and Director of Abrams Fensterman's Elder Law & Estate Planning Practice, and Julia L. Santo, Esq., Associate, this program is designed specifically for social work professionals navigating complex patient advocacy challenges.

Your social workers will gain practical guidance on:

- Addressing competency and capacity concerns
- Asserting patient rights within the health care system
- Securing Medicaid and related benefits
- Advocating effectively from home care through skilled nursing care

Given the critical role social workers play within nursing homes and long-term care settings, this program offers valuable, immediately applicable strategies to better serve residents and families.
