OPMC License Defense Counsel

Jordan Fensterman, Executive Partner at Abrams Fensterman, LLP, is one of New York's leading attorneys for OPMC and OPD professional license defense. As Director of the firm's OPMC & OPD

Defense Practices, he represents physicians, nurses, dentists, pharmacists, therapists, architects, engineers, and other licensed professionals facing investigations, complaints, audits, disciplinary proceedings, and regulatory inquiries from New York State agencies.

Widely recognized for his rapid, strategic response to license-threatening matters, Jordan is best known as a trusted resource for professionals across New York who suddenly find themselves at risk. His straightforward, educational approach has made him a go-to attorney for urgent OPMC and OPD matters on Long Island, in New York City, and statewide.

Jordan Defends Clients in:

- OPMC investigations, complaints, interviews, hearings, and disciplinary proceedings
- OPD and New York State Education Department professional license discipline matters
- Professional misconduct allegations and standards-of-care violations
- Documentation, charting, recordkeeping, and patient-care disputes
- Employment agreements, credentialing matters, hospital issues, and professional practice concerns
