Private Equity Group

Abrams Fensterman, LLP's private equity group integrates a comprehensive array of legal expertise essential for advising private equity funds and their sponsors across the entire fund lifecycle. Our services encompass fund structuring, global tax, ERISA and SEC regulatory compliance, mergers and acquisitions, debt financing, corporate governance, and bankruptcy. Comprised of seasoned corporate attorneys, our team has extensive experience representing private equity funds in various aspects such as fund formation, private placements, deal structuring, financing, and portfolio company investment, acquisition, and divestiture.

The private equity group at Abrams Fensterman also delivers comprehensive legal support to individual portfolio companies, covering areas like corporate governance, employee compensation, commercial contracts, real estate, compliance, and taxation, all guided by a nuanced understanding of sponsors' interests and priorities. Aligned with the entrepreneurial spirit of Abrams Fensterman's private equity clientele, our attorneys are relationship-focused, diligent, and attuned to deal requirements, positioning ourselves as collaborative partners with the clients we serve.
